

Graffiti Diversion Program

A diversionary option for Juvenile Justice Teams, the Children's Court and the Magistrates Court of Western Australia

Youth legal service.

What is the Graffiti Diversion Program?

The Graffiti Diversion Program administered by Youth Legal Service is available as a diversionary option to local government officers, the Police, Juvenile Justice Teams and the courts.

The program:

- Provides legal representation to young people under 25 years of age who are charged with graffiti offences.
- Determines an action plan for each young person that identifies risk factors as well as appropriate legal alternatives for expressing themselves.
- Examines offending behaviour and encourages young people to own their actions.
- Explores the consequences of further offending.
- Steers young people to positive pathways.

Program outline

The program is a multi-pronged approach to the management of graffiti offending. Alleged offenders are:

- Linked to a youth advocacy specialist lawyer for court representation.
- Provided with short term counselling intervention for the purpose of developing an action plan.
- Required to participate in a facilitated education session that reviews their legal rights and responsibilities.
- Issued with a Certificate of Completion and copy of their action plan as proof of participation.
